

CGA WEBSITE TERMS FOR LICENSE OF ENTRIES FOR THE DAMAGE PREVENTION TIME CAPSULE VIDEO CHALLENGE

On the CGA website, closely adjacent to download hypertext links to videos submitted for the Damage Prevention Time Capsule Video Challenge, insert the following terms. Actual download of the videos must be enabled only by clicking a box adjacent to the following terms.

“These videos and intellectual property therein, including, without limitation, copyrights, are the sole and exclusive property of the Common Ground Alliance (“CGA”). By downloading one or more of these videos, you represent, warrant, covenant, and agree that: (a) you are either (i) the person or entity that submitted the video to the CGA-sponsored Damage Prevention Time Capsule Video Challenge or (ii) a member in good standing of CGA; (b) if you are a natural person, that you are a competent adult and can lawfully agree to these terms and conditions; (c) if you are an entity or its representative, that the entity is lawfully in existence and is lawfully engaged in business in one or more states of the United States of America or the District of Columbia and you are authorized to agree to these terms and conditions for the entity; (d) you are agreeing to and are bound by the license and related terms set forth in the Damage Prevention Time Capsule Video Challenge Rules (“Rules”); and (e) you have read and understand the Rules which are available here [insert hypertext link to the Rules at ‘here’].”